EXPLANATORY NOTES

Volume 77 of American Book Prices Current appears under the imprint of Bancroft-Parkman, Inc., and has been prepared by a team of editors highly experienced in the field of rare books and manuscripts. As its users know, ABPC is not just a transcribed record of titles and prices, copied unquestioningly from the season's auction catalogues. It is, on the contrary, the only work in English in which every listing of printed material has been checked as to title, format, date of publication, edition, and limitations. Bindings are described, with condition where relevant, and wherever possible maps and plates in books are verified. Moreover, sales of autographs and manuscripts are reported. Because of this, ABPC is an essential tool for buying, selling, and evaluating books, serials, autographs, manuscripts, broadsides, and maps, based on actual figures realized at auction. In the words of a reviewer in the Times Literary Supplement, it is "an accurate, indispensable tool for the antiquarian bookseller and collector." And, in addition to meeting the need for a dependable guide in determining the value of old and out-of-print books, ABPC is a forward-looking publication which lists printed works and manuscripts of all centuries, from the earliest years to the present.

Because of the tremendously increased activity in recent years in the book and auction market and the resulting growth in the size of ABPC, we were forced to choose between expanding to two volumes with a corresponding increase in cost to the user and reduced convenience in handling, or placing limits on certain categories not of prime interest to most users of ABPC. In brief, listings of books in non-Western languages realizing less than $100 or its equivalent have been judiciously reduced, and such peripheral works as printings of musical scores, collections of plates, panoramas, etc., have been excluded. In keeping with previous editorial policy, auction lots consisting of groupings of miscellaneous volumes are not listed, for the prices realized by such lots can give no accurate indication of the value of individual items. Similarly, listings of badly broken runs of periodicals or seriously incomplete sets of printed books do not appear. A new feature is the presentation of autograph and manuscript listings in a single section, it being our belief that the convenience of the user is better served with but a single alphabet to work through than with an arbitrary division by chronological order. The economies in space realized by the foregoing have enabled us, on the other hand, to expand considerably the number of cross-references given, with a resultant increase in the convenience and usability of the book as a work of reference and guide to current prices.

American Book Prices Current is composed of two parts. Part I, Books, includes Broadsides, single-sheet printings, Maps & Charts, and uncorrected proof copy. Part II, Autographs & Manuscripts, includes original illustrations for printed books, documents, letters, typescripts, corrected proofs, signed photographs, and signatures, as well as manuscripts.

Entries are listed alphabetically by author whenever possible, by title when the author's name is not readily available, or by Private Press and Club, printer, or publisher headings if such are the associations which attract the collector. Subject headings such as England, Maps & Charts, Hebrew Books, Collections of Voyages, and Fore-Edge Paintings, or those for individual U.S. states or cities have also been used. Individual works are in turn listed alphabetically under each heading and include: title; place & date of publication; edition designation; size, binding, and condition of binding; descriptive material, limitation notes, and the sale record—auction house (in code), date or number of sale, lot number, price, and purchaser (when such information has been provided).

There are cross-references to Club or Press books, to books bound together, and to books by more than one author.

Listings of 20th-century books frequently lack format and binding. In such instances it may be assumed that these books are octavo or duodecimo and bound in cloth. It has been the practice not to include such information for books published after 1900.

Volume 77 lists only those books and manuscripts which sold for $20 or £10 or more. American and Canadian sales are recorded in dollars and cents, English sales in pounds and shillings. Prices reported by Swann Galleries drop the odd half-dollar, in accordance with the price lists provided by that house.

Our most particular thanks are due Jane Cherry, Doris Safie, Gerard Mayers, Edward & Ramona Lazare, and John Carter.

THE AUCTION SEASON

Volume 77 of American Book Prices Current reports the auction season from September 1970 to August 1971. Included are sales at the leading houses of London, New York, Montreal, and Philadelphia. This volume contains over 26,500 entries from more than 130 sales.

Prices realized in the book and autograph market during the 1970-71 season reflected the strong upward trend of recent years. An indication of how greatly price levels have increased may be seen in a comparison of the sales of Sotheby and Company for the 1960-61 and 1970-71 seasons. In 1960-61 Sotheby's sales realized $2,937,734 (£1,049,191), a sum which the Autumn 1961 issue of The Book Collector characterized as "a world record book-auction turnover that will not easily be repeated, let alone surpassed." Just ten years later, in the season 1970-71 covered in this volume of ABPC, Sotheby realized the astonishing sum of $6,216,173 (£2,591,397)—well over double the 1961 figure. And the other auction houses have shown similar gains.

The continuing rise in book prices is best illustrated, however, by a comparison of the sums paid for a few individual works taken at random. A leaf of the Gutenberg Bible for example, in A. Edward Newton's A Noble Fragment, brought $1,150 in 1961, $3,000 in 1971; Gould's Birds of Asia, £1,300 and $13,000 (£5,466); Fielding's Tom Jones, $130 and $450; and the Baskerville 1757 Bucolica of Virgil £18 and £55.

INCUNABULA AND EARLY PRINTED BOOKS. One of the year's most important sales was that of 29 duplicates from the Pierpont Morgan Library, offered by Sotheby on June 8. A total of £115,240 ($276,576) was realized, or a staggering average of £3,973 ($9,537) per volume. Highlights were: Caxton's Game and Playe of the Chesse, printed at Bruges in 1474/75, £44,000; Boethius' De Consolatione in the Caxton Westminster printing c.1478, £25,000; and the Aldine 1501 edition of Virgil's Works, £8,500. Other high prices during the season were paid for Caxton's 1481 printing of Vincent de Beauvais's Mirror of the World, £22,000; Sir Thomas Littleton's Tenores Novelli, 1481, bound by the "indulgence" binder with the Abbreviamentum Statutorum, 1481, £13,000; the first Jenson edition of Pliny's Historia Naturalis, 1472, £11,000. The last of these was from the sale at Christie's of the Chatsworth Library, which also included Quintilian, Institutiones Oratoriae, 1470, and Vindelinius de Spira's 1470 edition of Sallust's Works, both £3,800. St. Augustine, De Civitate Dei, 1470, brought £4,400. Other sales offered Wynken de Worde's 1498 printing of the Missal, £8,500, and a Latin-German Herbarius of 1484, £5,500. A collection of 223 books from the Aldine Press formed the sale at Christie's on March 24 and realized £21,333. In American rooms, the Huth copy of Wynken de Worde's printing of Peniteas cito Libellus, c.1514-20, sold at Freeman for $4,000, while the Ratdolt 1482 printing of Euclid, Opus Elementorum, brought $2,250 at Parke-Bernet. At Swann, the first edition of De Claris Mulieribus by Jacobus Philippus de Bergamo, 1497, reached $4,500 and the 1504 Aldine Homer on vellum realized $4,000.

AMERICANA. Interest in Americana continued to run high during the 1970-71 season. Most impressive, in terms of prices realized, was the sale held at Parke-Bernet on October 20. Highlights included a copy of the first printing of the Declaration of Independence, $130,000, and a first printing also of the Constitution of the United States, one of only eight copies known, which realized $30,000 (another copy of the Constitution, but lacking two leaves, brought $19,000 at Parke-Bernet on December 5). The October 20 sale also saw $5,500 paid for the first appearance in a foreign language of the Declaration of Independence—Heinrich Miller's printing in his Pennsylvanischer Staatsbote, July 1776. The manuscript notes made by John Lansing of the meetings of the Constitutional Convention, to which he was a delegate, brought $11,500. Two manuscript maps, one of the Fort at Detroit, 1760, the other of Robert Rogers's attack on the Indian Village of St. Francis, 1759, realized $4,000 and $4,250, respectively, at the same sale. Also sold was Benjamin Franklin's extensively annotated copy of a book on the Stamp Act, $20,000. In other sales, C. L. Watkins's 1863 Photographic Views of the Yo-Semite brought $4,500 at Swann Galleries, and Henry Warre's Sketches in North America and the Oregon Territory, 1848, sold for $4,800 at Parke-Bernet. A previously unrecorded broadside printing of The Star Spangled Banner, 1814?, went for $2,400, and M'Kenny & Hall's History of the Indian Tribes, 1836-42-44, brought $3,750.

As might be expected, sales held in Montreal accounted for the greatest number of items of Canadian interest. A highlight of the season was the autograph diary of Louis Riel, which brought $26,500 in the Montreal sale of April 22. In addition, an important series of volumes of Jesuit Relations went for prices up to $1,500.

ENGLISH & AMERICAN LITERATURE & FIRST EDITIONS. The sale at Sotheby's of books and manuscripts from the library at Britwell Court yielded the season's highest price for a work of English literature: £24,000 for a complete copy of Blake's Urizen, 1794. Other items from the same sale were: Blake, Poetical Sketches, 1783, £3,800; Shelley, Oedipus Tyrannus: or, Swellfoot the Tyrant, £4,800; the first edition of Holinshed's Chronicles, 1577, £2,400; an account of the battle of Flodden Field, c.1513, £3,800; Fabyan's Chronicles of England and France, 1516, £3,400; and an unusual association volume—the Pope-Horace Walpole copy of Homer's Opera, 1707, with a manuscript draft of a poem by Pope, £1,500. An advance copy of the first edition of Endymion, 1818, with corrections in Keats's hand and with title page in an unrecorded state brought £6,200. Other sales yielded the first edition of Yeats's Mosada, 1886, £1,400; a set of first editions of the three volumes forming Defoe's Robinson Crusoe, £2,400; the Second Folio of Shakespeare, $4,250 & £1,350; Kipling's Echoes, 1884, $2,300; the first edition of Joyce's Ulysses, £1,600 & $2,500. The growing interest in Victorian fiction was reflected in a Sotheby sale on October 12-13 of a large collection devoted to novels of the era. At Parke-Bernet two sales offered substantial listings of Trollope, whose Ralph the Heir in original parts, 1870-71, brought $3,000. Washington Irving's Salmagundi, 1807-8, in the original 20 parts, brought the highest sum paid for a work of American literature during the season, $11,000, while the first edition, first issue of Whitman's Leaves of Grass, 1855, in the first binding, realized $3,750.

THE AUCTION SEASON

HEBREW BOOKS. The second part of the Sassoon collection of Hebrew printed books, sold at Sotheby's on March 1, was rich in incunabula. David ben Joseph Abudraham's Commentary on the Book of Prayer, Lisbon, 1489, realized £2,200, while Mordecai Finzi's Almanach, printed before 1480 at Mantua, sold for £2,800. The first complete edition of the Mishna, with the Commentary of Maimonides, printed by Soncino at Naples in 1492, went for £2,400. Parke-Bernet sold another Soncino printing, the Tehillim of 1490, on October 13 for $3,000, and on June 8 devoted an entire sale to Hebrew and Jewish books from the collections of Michael Zagayski and other owners.

NATURAL HISTORY, MEDICINE, & SCIENCE. The works of John Gould continued to bring high prices on both sides of the Atlantic, his Monograph of the Trochilidae realizing £5,400 at Sotheby on November 30 and his birds of Asia $13,000 at Parke-Bernet on May 11. Other prices paid for Gould works included: The Birds of Australia, £6,500; The Birds of New Guinea £4,000 and $9,500; and The Birds of Europe £3,000 and $9,000. High prices were also paid for Audubon & Bachman's Viviparous Quadrupeds of North America, $11,000; Buffon's Histoire Naturelle des Oiseaux, £3,800; Ruiz Lopez & Pavon's Florae Peruvianae, £3,200; Redoute's Les Roses, £5,500, and the same author's Les Liliacees, $15,000. Mary Lawrance's A Collection of Roses from Nature, 1799, sold for £2,800, while Bateman's Orchidaceae of Mexico and Guatemala realized £3,700.

In the medical and scientific fields, Robert Boyle's Sceptical Chymist of 1661 sold for £3,000, while John Fitzherbert's Boke of Surveying and Improvements, 1523, brought £2,400. Other highlights were William Gilbert, De Magnete, 1600, £1,500; Richard Bright, Reports of Medical Cases, 1827-31, £3,500; and Robert Hooke's Lectiones Cutlerianae, 1679, and Micrographia, 1665, £1,300 and £1,100.

ILLUSTRATED BOOKS. Among books written and illustrated by famous artists, the following realized noteworthy prices: Matisse, Jazz, £4,200; Rouault, Miserere, $8,500 and $7,000; Suares, Passion, with the Rouault illustrations, £2,600; St. John Perse, L'Ordre des Oiseaux, illustrated by Braque, $6,750; the 1902 edition of Daphnis & Chloe illustrated by Bonnard, $4,000; Gogol, Les Ames Mortes, illustrated by Chagall, $3,900. Among earlier artists, Blake's Illustrations for the Book of Job, 1825, brought $3,800, and Piranesi's Vedute di Roma, 1748-88, sold for £3,900.

AUTOGRAPHS & MANUSCRIPTS. Forty-three manuscripts from the collection of the late Major J. R. Abbey, forming Part VII of the sales from his library, were offered by Sotheby's on December 1. They realized £197,850. Top price in the sale was £28,000, paid for the 14th-century French Hours of the Virgin once owned by John Ruskin. Two other magnificently illuminated Hours, both 15th-century Dutch, brought £18,000 and £13,000, and a copy of Giovanni Pontano's De Amore Conjugali, written at Naples in the late 15th century, brought £11,000. High prices in other sales included £13,000 for a Pontifical in Latin, written in England c.1000, and discovered only in 1970 in the stables of Brodie Castle; a lavishly decorated Hours from the South Netherlands, c.1440, £10,000; Ambrogio Traversari's Latin translation of works by Johannes Climacus and Ephraim Syrus, written at Florence by the famous scribe Antonio di Mario in 1440, £6,800; and Maimonides' Guide to the Perplexed, in a Hebrew translation written in Spain, 1476, £3,800. In the

Sotheby sale of December 7, devoted to Oriental manuscripts and miniatures, an elaborately illuminated copy of Nizami's Khamsa written at Shiraz in the early 16th century brought £5,000, and another manuscript, of Firdausi's Shahnama, with miniatures by Muhammad Musa, sold for £3,000.

Interest in historical autographs remained high. An excerpt in John F. Kennedy's hand from his "Ask not what your country can do for you" speech was sold by Hamilton for $11,000. A considerable number of Washington autographs were offered, including a letter to General William Alexander, $10,000, another to Elbridge Gerry concerning his reluctance to seize private property, $5,400, and one to Thomas Jefferson, $4,800. Jefferson autographs also realized good prices, a letter referring to the murder of friendly Indians bringing $1,900. A document signed by Benjamin Franklin brought $4,400, and a letter to the painter Benjamin West concerning Franklin's possible reception in London $2,100. A copy of the resolution proposing the Thirteenth Amendment, signed by Abraham Lincoln, realized $4,700, and a document signed by Lincoln appointing an arbitrator in the suppression of the slave trade brought $2,200. The manuscript of the Resolution for the impeachment of President Andrew Johnson, signed by congressional members who had voted the measure, was sold for $8,000. Napoleon's autograph notes on Adam Smith's Wealth of Nations brought $4,200, and a letter signed "N" £1,900. A letter to his uncle, Cardinal Fesch, referring caustically to the Pope, brought $2,300.

Prices realized for proofs of a number of George Eliot's novels, with the author's revisions, reflected continued interest in literary figures. Highest prices were £5,500 for the proofs of Middlemarch and £2,600 for The Mill on the Floss. Other prices during the season were: $9,500 for the corrected typescript of D. H. Lawrence's The Escaped Cock; a copy of The Jolly Beggars in the hand of Robert Burns, $4,250; letters of Lord Byron, £4,600 and £1,200; an autograph draft of a portion of Byron's English Bards and Scotch Reviewers, £1,000; a series of 4 letters from David Livingstone, £3,000; letters of Edgar Allan Poe, $3,750 and $3,500; Walt Whitman's manuscript of his essay Criticism, $3,100; and Baudelaire's autograph manuscript of Les Sept Vieillards, £4,000. The working draft typescript of Marc Connelly's The Green Pastures, with the author's revisions, brought $6,500. From the Phillipp Collection came a copy of a letter by Sir Philip Sidney, referring to his own poetry and outlining a course of self-education for his correspondent, which realized £4,800; and a 16th-century copy of a poem by Peter Idley, Instructions to his Son, £5,000.

Sales of manuscript material of artists and musicians included £2,000 for a series of 66 autograph letters from William Holman Hunt; a series of letters by John Everett Millais, £2,600; an autograph score of Stravinsky, £1,900; and a letter of Beethoven, $1,000.

VOYAGES, TRAVEL & EXPLORATION, Atlases, Geography, etc. A high point in the season was the sale of Ptolemy's Cosmographia, 1482, printed on vellum, £34,000 at Sotheby's on March 29. Other high prices were: Blaeu, Atlas Major, 1662-65, £7,200, and Theatre du Monde, £1,300 and £1,200; The Atlantic Neptune, 1775-81, £4,800; Janssonius's Novus Atlas, 1647-50, lacking the 3d volume, $4,000; the first edition of Saxton's Atlas of England and Wales, c.1599, £2,600; and works by Speed, £2,400, £2,200, and £2,000. At Montreal, the Atlas volume only of Maximilian de Wied-Neuwied's Travels in North-America brought $6,500.
